

Innovation in Education

Public Opinion Poll of Students, Teachers and Parents www.dell.com/innovateedu #DoMoreEdu say that they have access to more advanced technology at home than they do at school.

say they disapprove of students using social media in the classroom to share what they are learning, while most respondents in China say they approve of social media for this purpose say that technology allows them to create a more personalized learning experience.

and most teachers

say their students know how to use technology better than they do, including 63% of students say the benefits of technology in the classroom outweigh any potential distractions...but 51% of students said it could be a distraction.